Agreement on support to: Training in Ultra Sound

Pfizer wishes to provide support to training in Ultra Sound and has therefore entered into this Agreement with Regionshospitalet Silkeborg (hereafter referred to as the "Recipient").

The purpose of the activity is to send MD Annett Cannon to Germany to be trained by Professor Dr. Christian Maaser in Ultra Sound 2 days in April 2018 at Klinikum Lüneburg. Afterwards it is expected that MD Annett Cannon will teach colleagues in Denmark in Ultra Sound in the IBD/gastroenterology area

The agreement shall run until May 2018.

Pfizer's financial commitment in relation to this Agreement shall be 3.888,10 DKK excl. VAT.
(includes mileage allowance and expenses for hotel costs during the stay)

Please complete and sign the attached Payment Form and return it to Pfizer as soon as possible together with the signed agreement. Please note that Pfizer will be precluded from providing you with the financial support if you do not state a CVR-number on the Payment Form.

Responsible persons at the Hospital

The donation will be given to the Recipient and is approved by MD Ulrich Fredberg, Diagnostisk Center, Regionshospitalet Silkeborg, on behalf of the Hospital

Disclaimer

The Recipient will ensure that the donation is used solely for professional and scientific purposes in relation to the activity and undertakes that any surplus from the donation not used in accordance herewith will be refunded.

Upon request from Pfizer the Recipient must document that the support is spend in accordance with the above-mentioned.
